.....RESPONDENT(S)

THE HONOURABLE SRI JUSTICE C.V.RAMULU

W.P.NO.17222 OF 2000

ORDER:

This writ petition is directed against the proceedings issued by the Registrar of Acharya N.G.Ranga Agricultural University, Rajendernagar, in his Memo No 17672/VS/A1/2000 dated 13-6-2000 wherein permission is accorded to the Associate Dean to fill up 15 posts of Animal Attendants in the pay scale of Rs.2,650-4050 by calling the candidates from the District Employment Exchange, Krishna District, duly observing the rule of Roster etc. and permission was also accorded to him to convert (6) six posts of Lab Attendants already recruited as Animal Attendants. The grievance of the petitioners is that they are working since quite a long time i.e. 1979 onwards and they have completed more than 15 to 20 years of service and they are entitled for regularization of their services as per G.O.Ms.No. 212, Finance & Planning Department, dated 22-4-1994. Inspite of the fact that they are eligible and they are also entitled for consideration under the said G.O., their case is not considered under the impugned order. The Associate Dean was permitted to fill up those vacancies by calling candidates from the employment exchange. However, no interim stay was granted. During the pendency of the writ petition, the interviews were conducted and the respondent No.6 was impleaded, thereafter, he was appointed.

Be that as it may, since it is asserted by the petitioner that they are eligible for being absorbed on regular basis into the suitable vacancies as per G.O.Ms.No.212 Finance & Planning Department dated 22-4-1994, the respondents are directed to consider the case of the petitioners for regularization of their services in any suitable vacancies as per their eligibility and if they are otherwise suitable for the said posts within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. Till such consideration, the services of the petitioners shall be continued as such on the same terms and conditions as of now.

The writ petition is disposed of accordingly. No order as to costs.
